

A Genealogy of Composers

A concert of music by composers who taught other composers, in a single unbroken line from the 17th to 20th centuries. Featuring music of Carissimi, Saint-Saëns, Fauré and Copland, among others.

Ann Arbor Cantata Singers

“They sang with immense energy and enormous gusto...with tender expressivity and tremendous sensitivity...with the kind of inward intensity that makes the heart swell and the eyes tear.”

-James Leonard, Ann Arbor Observer
